* Per Section 2.5 of the Planning Commission Rules of Procedure, “[t]he Planning Commission will not consider any material given to them unless it was submitted 21 days prior to their scheduled meeting.” Section 2.5 authorizes staff “to substitute a more reasonable time frame to consider submitted materials based on the totality of the circumstances surrounding the particular case.” However, to allow staff an appropriate amount of time for review of the item and include it in the Planning Commission Staff Report, all additional documents and substantive changes must be submitted at least one week in advance of the agenda packet date. Minor changes, i.e., minor proffer changes, typos, etc. are not required one week in advance of the agenda packet date.
